

Morris has arranged getaways for stars such as Kate Hudson (in Hawaii Jan. 12).

SECRETS OF A STAR CONCIERGE

At their service! Former bellhop Michael Morris, 31, has become a private concierge for stars including Fergie and Madonna with his NYC-based company, Concierge Service International. Without naming names, he tells Us about his wildest celeb requests.

Bubble bath "One actor wanted an entire hot tub to be filled with champagne. It wound up totally ruining the filtration system!"

White in An A-lister called Morris from Diddy's annual White Party in New York's Hamptons. "His girlfriend wore light blue. They wouldn't let her in — so we messengered her a white outfit."

Small surprise "I had to hire midgets for a celebrity's party once — and make them look like Oompa-Loompas!"

MAX BRATMAN

For her son's first bash January 17, Christina Aguilera transformed her backyard into a fantastic Maurice Sendak-inspired Where the Wild Things Are jungle.

ZAHARA JOLIE-PITT

"It was princesses, lots of pink!" mom Angelina Jolie told Us of Zahara's January 8 turning-4 fete. Playing royals is the kids' top theme, L.A. planner Marley Majcher of The Party Goddess says. High-end dos start at about $10,000!

SEAN & JAYDEN FEDERLINE

Britney Spears' boys rocked a monster-truck theme, including truck-shaped grilled cheese! "Nascar's also huge," says Majcher.

HARLOW MADDEN

Nicole Richie gave guests (Beckhams, Maguires, Wentzes and Rosssdales) nifty animal lunch boxes and washcloths at her baby's first birthday January 12.

KINGSTON ROSSDALE

Two is terrible? Last May, mom Gwen Stefani held a safari party for her first-born with a moonbounce, live petting zoo and pony rides.
